Rep. Dennis A. Ross
2 hrs ·

Happy Fourth of July! Please join me in celebrating the amazing birth of the United States of America. Two hundred forty years ago, our Forefathers adopted the Declaration of Independence, laying the foundation for what is now the land of the Free and the home of the Brave. I am blessed to live in a country that is full of liberties, democracy and patriotism. I also ask that you join me in thanking our veterans and soldiers for the sacrifices they have made to defend our country and preserve what our ancestors fought so hard to obtain—Freedom. It is an honor to represent the great 15th District of Florida and this great nation. I pray God blesses you all, and continues to bless the United States of America.

Gordon Wayne Watts Thank you for being dedicated to hard work and a tangible presence in your district. Even the liberal professor, Dr. R. Bruce Anderson, who writes columns now for The Ledger, says he'll vote for you, but not for Senator Marco Rubio:

[[["Consider another Florida legislator. I disagree with almost everything that our own Rep. Dennis Ross says about foreign policy, but I will likely vote for him this November. Why? Because he brings home the goods when it comes to Polk County, and he's a guy who learns."]]]

POLITICS: VIEWED LOCALLY

"Anderson: Tennis, Rubio, and the measure of the Senate race," By R. Bruce Anderson, Ledger columnist, Sunday, June 26, 2016

That is all well and good, but you have not yet fulfilled implied promises to both return the bankruptcy sword to the hands of the college student (to defend against predatory lending, as bankruptcy is an Economic 2nd amendment), nor your implied promise to get tax dollars out of higher ed loans in the 1st place.

You are still front-page news on The Register: www.GordonWatts.com (the GoDaddy mirror) and:

www.GordonWayneWatts.com (the HostGator mirror) and will remain so until we (the 99%) get representation here.

You are correct when you said that if bankruptcy can be available to others, why not students with loans, but, respectfully, I do not see any relief on this issue by representation from you.

While we did indeed have free college (as Bernie Sanders claims), and - by all rights - deserve it now, I am not asking for a free handout, but placing the (financial) load squarely on the back of students by deceptive and illegal Predatory Lending - and having Tax Dollars back these toxic loans, WILL crash the US Dollar, Rep. Dennis A. Ross, and WILL bring to pass the scary "financial crash" predictions in Revelation 6:6 with regard to us needing a day's wages for a day's portion of food.

We WILL crash our US Dollar if you do not get our tax dollars out of higher ed, as you've promised. Please keep your promises, here, Dennis Ross.

Gordon!!!
