

Gordon Watts <gww1210@gmail.com>

Legislative feedback and questions...

1 message

Gordon Watts <gww1210@gmail.com>

Tue, Oct 27, 2020 at 1:55 AM

To: SF@votescottfranklin.com, Scott@votescottfranklin.com, Scott.franklin@lakelandgov.net

Cc: "Mutz, Bill" <bill.mutz@lakelandgov.net>, "Rep. Ross Spano" <RepRossSpano@mail.house.gov>, rossspano15@gmail.com, info <info@rossspano.com>, Morgan@rossspano.com, "Bucheli, Daniel" <Daniel.Bucheli@mail.house.gov>, Dov.Levin@mail.house.gov, "Jackson, Tony" <Tony.Jackson@mail.house.gov>, "Gww1210@aol.com" <gww1210@aol.com>, Gordon Watts <gww1210@gmail.com>

Bcc: "Gww12102002@yahoo.com" <gww12102002@yahoo.com>, Gordon Watts <gordonwaynewatts@hotmail.com>, Gordon Watts <gordonwaynewatts@aol.com>, thirst4justice <thirst4justice@yahoo.com>

RE: https://Facebook.com/story.php?story_fbid=175378124136191&id=103506984656639

Scott:

I know that I have asked lengthy questions in the past, and do NOT intend to be too verbose or talkative, but in light of the fact that America once had FREE COLLEGE (in some places, but mostly very, very affordable in almost everywhere else), what do you plan to do about the "new" triple threats of:

- 1) unaffordable costs of college
- 2) resulting oppressive debt slavery

And

- 3) The threat this places on crashing the dollar (which is on the hook for this illegally inflationary price-gouging)??..

NOTE: I'm more conservative than you and oppose both free college and 100% debt forgiveness, but recall vividly the speech that Rep. Matt Gaetz (R-FL-01) gave at the Judiciary Committee on the markup of H.R.2648, declaring (correctly, I may add) that restoration of Student Loan Bankruptcy availability would create market forces to both reduce excessive use of tax dollars to make/back collegiate loans – AND force down tuition inflation when greedy Liberal colleges realize students no longer have deep pockets loans.

Note: 44.7 Million Americans with students debt and another 30-40 million cosigners, family, and friends would give you their gratitude if you could explain why the GOP-controlled Dept of Justice has not addressed this illegal price-gouging-- and why previous administrations under Republican control did NOTHING when we GOP held House, Senate, and Oval Office in the 1st two years of both the Trump administration and the 1st two years of George W. Bush's administration.

I.e., I'm asking why they did not cut recklessly high spending (read: pork spending waste) of tax dollars to subsidize these toxic and subprime (read: very unwise) loans. My guess is that removal of bankruptcy defense from student loans created an unstoppable force of liberal higher ed lobbyists who pushed to increase loan limits-- and thus pork barrel scam spending. If you disagree, fine, but plz explain why the GOP failed us in the past if not for this. If you agree, then join me, Rep. Gaetz, Rep. John Katko (R-NY-24) and other Conservative Republicans who support H.R.2648 and S.1414, which would fix a flaw in current U.S. Bankruptcy Code which violates the Uniformity clause in the U.S. Constitution-- and please put that pledge in writing to support this bankruptcy bill ALONG WITH a written pledge to immediately introduce the loan limits (spending cuts) bill mentioned above (and which I emailed you).

Failure to do these 2 could alienate 70-80 Million Americans with student debt -- who don't seek a free handout-- just fairness-- and a request that you lawmakers AVOID the sin of King Rehoboam (son of King Solomon and grandson of King David), insofar as he did not heed their similar requests for a fair adjustment to the obscenely high excesses in taxes, fees, and (I infer from the text) regulatory burdens. That historical account is found in your Bible. You are a Christian like me and are familiar with the sin of Rehoboam-- which I charge you solemnly to avoid.

Also, failure to heed my advice will, if unchecked, guarantee a crash of the dollar --and loss of the U.S. Senate to ANGRY voters who will react to you in the same way that 10 of the 12 tribes of ISRAEL reacted to King Rehoboam's foolishness.

Thank you if you can clarify here on these 2 legislative matters.

Gordon Wayne Watts in Plant City FLORIDA --///

Screenshot_20201027-015031.png
384K