Dear Joshau:

Referring to the 3 attached screenshots, it has come to my attention that one of the subjects of a recent news story you wrote (and whom we both interviewed in our capacity as news reporters) has received death threats: Nicholas Linkey (shown in the FB Messenger screenshot) has reported such (screenshot of his comments at * https://Facebook.com/groups/sljgroup/permalink/10160084761806702/ * https://Archive.ph/VO6rt * https://Web.Archive.org/web/20230101112636/https://www.facebook.com/groups/sljgroup/permalink/10160084761806702/ in Alan Collinge's famous SLJ group), and has said it was ok to email you about his matter (see screenshot with grant of permission).

The news item in question is: "Student debtors refuse to pay back loans: 'I'm not gonna feed this monster anymore,'" By Joshua Rhett Miller, New York Post, November 19, 2022, 8:03am, Updated, LINKS:

INTRO: Since you might not have heard about me, I should let you know that I am a heavyweight Conservative writer with deep credentials, not unlike you: We have been doing ongoing news coverage of the student loan bankruptcy legislation (namely H.R.9110, H.R.4907, and S.2598, as of recent). For context, I'm the same Gordon Wayne Watts who nearly won the largest pro-life case since Roe, see e.g., <https://www.Google.com/search?&q=gordon+wayne+watts+terri+schiaivo>, my blogs, occasional columns, and press inquiries, are taken seriously: <https://www.GwinnettForum.com/2022/12/another-view-america-faces-challenges-no-matter-who-is-in-control> See e.g., <https://ContractWithAmerica2.com/#staff>, my work page, where I am Nat'l Director:

In Re: GORDON WAYNE WATTS (as next friend of THERESA MARIE 'TERRI' SCHIAVO), No. SC03-2420 (Fla. Feb.23, 2005), denied 4-3 on rehearing. (Watts got 42.7% of his panel) FloridaSupremeCourt.org/clerk/dispositions/2005/2/03-2420reh.pdf

 In Re: JEB BUSH, GOVERNOR OF FLORIDA, ET AL. v. MICHAEL SCHIAVO, GUARDIAN: THERESA SCHIAVO, No. SC04-925 (Fla. Oct.21, 2004), denied 7-0 on rehearing. (Bush got 0.0% of his panel before the same court) FloridaSupremeCourt.org/clerk/dispositions/2004/10/04-925reh.pdf

Schiavo ex rel. Schindler v. Schiavo ex rel. Schiavo, 403 F.3d 1223, 2005 WL 648897 (11th Cir. Mar.23, 2005), denied 2-1 on appeal. (Terri Schiavo's own blood family only got 33.3% of their panel on the Federal Appeals level)  Media.CA11.UsCourts.gov/opinions/pub/files/200511556.pdf

Without further ado, I'll cut right to the chase, now that I've established that I'm a serious journalist, like you and your colleagues at the NY Post (and not merely a random blogger, but even were that the case, I'm sure you'd hear me out on this Priority I matter).

When I saw Nick's comment in forum, I immediately contacted him in late November when your piece published, and I asked him if it were alright that I contact the writer of the article and seek assistance here. NOTE: The death threats Nick received were NOT your fault or that of The NY Post, but we, as writers, have an moral obligation to address such matters, and if you read my own news and commentary, I make the salient points that students have MORE than fully-repaid taxpayers, and this even at illegally-inflated prices, not to mention illegal changes to existing loan contracts and Unconstitutional removal of constitutionally-protected bankruptcy uniformity were done.

My point is quite simple: All I'm asking you and your colleagues, at the Post, to do is nothing more than what we've done at The Register and CONTRACT WITH AMERICA: PART II(TM), namely point out these lesser-known facts: Indeed, while NO justification exists for threatening the subjects of our ongoing investigations, nonetheless, loose canons do exist, fact of life, and if they knew that VERY POOR students have indeed repaid much more than their fair share (unlike rich PPP recipients, many of whom got MILLIONS forgiven -- big contrast), then, you know what? Maybe they'd be less inclined to attack innocent victims.

Now, I've cc copied Christina Winton, a good friend of mine, who can verify that I'm credible. Secondly, I don't feel it would be appropriate for me to ask Alan Collinge to let me drop his name (he's big time, alright?), but I am including him in the cc line, as he is the leader of the group where you obviously got much information. (I will, however, put in a good word of reference for Alan, and suggest he and I both could write news and opinion pieces for The Post, perhaps, in the future). Also, I'm cc copying Nicholas Linkey, who was good enough to give me his blessing to contact you on his behalf. LASTLY, as I've got truly genuine heavyweight AND Conservative legal credentials, as documented in my 2 popular legal memos, I'm attaching them to verify my claims.

In closing, I hope, maybe, to write an opinion piece for The Post, but in the meantime, I am running late for my 9:30am Sunday School, which starts in 15 minutes (or less), and have NO time to do ANYTHING except send this email and keep my word to Nick. And, in the meantime, I hope you and your crew can publish an update to your excellent news story, addressing the Priority I phenomenon: Death threats and MUCH rancor, anger, and discontent. You all are smart: not only do lives hang in the balance, not to mention a crash of the dollar and harm to both taxpayers (a concern of Conservatives like me) AND students (a valid concern of Liberals), but, as a practical matter, good morals and good policy make good news! I hope you can benefit from my investigative reporting: please see the attached, and, if you have any questions, you're welcome to contact me. Now, off to church I must go to honour my dear mother and my religion.

With kind regards, I am, Sincerely,
