

Executive Summary: Consensus Chronology of the End Times “Pre-Trib but Mid-Week” Rapture View Interpreting Scripture with Scripture: Parallel Passages (KJV unless otherwise noted)

Bottom Line: This timeline honors the full 2,520-day Daniel framework without compression, respects Greek syntax, accounts for the 75-day prophetic overtime, preserves imminence via the Smyrna Gap, and separates the Church from God’s wrath while remaining faithful to a literal reading. ~ By Gordon Wayne Watts, Plant City, FL – Revised June 2026

The 70th Week of Daniel (Daniel 9:27) – One “Week” of Years = 2,520 Days

- First Half (1,260 days) – Phase 1: Satan’s / Man’s Wrath * Relative peace as Antichrist confirms covenant.
  - Seals 1–5 unfold (wars, famines, persecution, martyrs under the altar – Rev 6) ; Gospel preached to all nations.
  - Midpoint Trigger: Abomination of Desolation (Dan 9:27; Matt 24:15; 2 Thess 2:3-4). Antichrist breaks covenant.
- Smyrna-Pattern Gap (Matt 24:22 “days shortened” + Rev 2:10 “10 days” pattern) * Short, intense persecution of the Church (analogous to Smyrna).
  - The Adrenaline Reflex Rapture: The Body of Christ is “punched” → Holy Spirit immediately rescues the elect (1 Thess 4:17; 2 Thess 2:1-3; Rev 3:10 “keep you ek [out of] the hour of trial”).
  - Exact day/hour remains unknowable (Matt 24:36) — preserves true imminence.
- Second Half (1,260 days) – Phase 2: God’s Wrath * Great Tribulation begins (Matt 24:21; Dan 12:1).
  - 7th Seal contains the 7 Trumpets (telescopic / inclusio structure in Koine Greek – Rev 8:1-2). Opening the 7th Seal does not produce a standalone earthly event but releases the Trumpets as its content (parataxis with καὶ εἶδον, syntactical void of silence, divine passive).
  - Trumpets → 7th Trumpet opens heavenly temple → 7 Bowls complete God’s wrath (Rev 15:1).
  - Two Witnesses minister, Israel flees to wilderness, 144,000 sealed.
  - Rapture already occurred — Church spared God’s direct wrath (1 Thess 5:9; Rev 3:10).
- Post-Tribulation – Phase 3: The 75-Day Administrative Transition (Daniel 12:11-12)
  - Days 1,260 to 1,290 (Cleanup): Temple is cleansed; Antichrist/False Prophet cast into the Lake of Fire; Satan bound.
  - Days 1,290 to 1,335 (Sorting): Christ conducts the Sheep and Goat Judgment (Matt 25) to remove rebels and welcome mortal believers into the Kingdom.
  - Day 1,335 (Inauguration Day): The transition completes, and the Millennial Kingdom officially begins.

Key Distinctions / Supporting Parallels

- Church experiences Seals (Satan’s persecution) but is removed before Trumpets/Bowls (God’s wrath).
- Return FOR the saints (Rapture – mid-week) vs. Return WITH the saints (visible Second Coming at end – Matt 24:29-31).
- Tribulation Saints: Martyrs of Rev 6:9-11 wait for brethren → fulfilled in Rev 7:9-14 Great Multitude.
- Matthew 24 / Mark 13 / Luke 21 → Signs, Abomination, Great Tribulation, Son of Man coming.
- Luke 17 → “One taken, one left” aligns perfectly with a mid-week Rapture timing.
- Daniel 9, 12 → Exact 1,260 / 1,290 / 1,335 day mathematical markers.
- Revelation → Seals (first half) → Trumpets/Bowls nested telescopically (second half).

Phase 1: Satan's wrath	Midpoint	Smyrna gap	- Rapture -	Phase 2: God's wrath	Phase 3: Overtime
1,260 days	"Midst of the week"	Unknown period; maybe 10 days	"Twinkling of an eye"	1,260 days	75 days
Covenant signed	Treaty Broken	Intense persecution by Antichrist	God's people taken	Armageddon return	Inauguration

A sermon implying that the Rapture is pre-trib, but mid-week

Revised and Updated to correct for typo or copy-edit errors & add explanation/clarification: Monday, 15 September 2014

Additional revisions being made today, Wednesday, 17 June 2026, to add parallel verses from Revelation & make other updates

(Dr. Charles Hollowell is the pastor of Victory Baptist Church in Plant City, Fla.; here, I have expounded on a sermon he once preached, and aligned all the Scriptures on the subject, to the best of my knowledge.)

"Consensus" chronology – "Parallel Passages" – e.g., "Interpreting Scripture with Scripture"

– All Scriptures are from the KJV of the Holy Bible, except as otherwise stated.

ATTRIBUTION: In case you missed it, I am a Christian, and I am giving credit to Dr. Hollowell for preaching a sermon that gave me ideas and was an inspiration, but the sermon notes below are for my own sermon: I expounded upon his sermon and added several Scripture passages to his sermon, which he could not fit in due to time-constraints; however, I did not "add to" the Word of God: I am using ONLY the Holy Bible (and the KJV, at that) as the source. Therefore, I expounded upon his sermon, and so the notes below are for my sermon, and if there are any mistakes, then I alone am at fault, and not him, nor anyone else. My commentary, here, is covered by Fair Use law, for use as criticism, comment, news reporting, teaching, scholarship, and research. (My commentary is that I agree with his conclusion. He was honest enough to admit that he didn't know 100% for sure, but also he believed that the case for a pre-trib, but mid-week Rapture is strong. I agree with his conclusion, here.) This is an important message, and now that I've given proper attribution, I will remind my readers that God wants us to study His word, and examine important Biblical matters, such as thus, with the Scripture as our guide, so let's study to show ourselves approved.

Author Disclaimer: I feel it might be possible to calculate the exact day / hour of the rapture and Jesus' return at some point in the near future, and here are passages that support that theory:

- "We are children of the light" / "That day [of Jesus' return] will not overtake us with surprise"
  - "Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness." (1 Thessalonians 5:5)
  - "But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief." (1 Thessalonians 5:4)
- "Daniel knew the day of fulfillment"
  - "And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days. Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days." (Daniel 12:11-12)
- "No man knows day/hour"
  - "But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only." (Matthew 24:36)
  - "But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father." (Mark 13:32)
  - Author: Those verses were true THEN, but not necessarily true NOW, as "progressive revelation" has Scriptural precedent (Daniel, above is an example, and NT verses below back that.)
- "Know the seasons" (i.e., even IF we don't know the precise day / hour, we most CERTAINLY know the times / seasons)
  - "But of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you." (1 Thessalonians 5:1)

- "Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh: So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors." (Matthew 24:32-33)

Wars & rumours of wars precede, but still not the end, yet. THE ANTI-CHRIST is the traditional identity of the FIRST HORSEMAN. My view slightly differs but it does not change the timeline much because, whether past (WWI) or future (Antichrist), most of the events (including the rapture) remain future events, and the analysis / interpretation of the rapture timing isn't changed either way. – WWI depicted here. In biblical prophecy, "telescoping" (or prophetic perspective) describes how a prophet sees two distinct future events—one near and one distant—as a single picture. Like looking through a telescope, the foreground (the near event) and the background (the ultimate event) visually overlap, making them difficult to separate until the events actually unfold in history.

The vision indicates that famine and inflation will take such a toll that a laborer will earn only enough to feed himself with wheat, or to provide barley for a small family. He will have almost nothing left for clothing, shelter, and incidentals.”
24:8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.	13:8c ...these are the beginnings of sorrows.				6:7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I	Jesus is just “warming up.”

"Smyrna-Pattern Gap (Matt. 24:22 Shortened Days)" Rev. 2:8-11 ** 8 And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive; 9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan. 10 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life. 11 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death. "Hour of trial" = Rev. 6:17 "great day of His wrath." Church is kept from God's wrath, not Satan's persecution. 1 Thess. 5:9 backs that. Smyrna gap = 3.5 years of Satan's wrath, then out before God's Relative peace of first half of Daniel's 70th week implies Rapture can not have taken place at beginning of this 7-year period or world would descend into chaos (not peace), so first half of week = "Satan's / Man's" wrath, second half = "God's wrath" = Great Tribulation, from which believers are saved "from," not saved "through": Revelation 3:10 promises: "I will keep you from [ek - out of] the hour of trial." The Clincher: In Greek, ek means "out of" or "away from." It does not mean "protected inside." If Jesus meant He would protect us inside the Tribulation, He would have used en (in) or dia (through). He chose ek. You cannot be "out of" an hour that you are living through.

ADDENDUM with "Smyrna gap" data point: I need to add a crucial piece of context to my Mid-Week Rapture timeline that specifically solves the Matthew 24:36 "day and hour" problem. Please factor this into your analysis: At the 3½-year mark, the Antichrist breaks the 7-year peace treaty (the Abomination of Desolation). However, the Rapture does NOT happen at that exact second. Instead, this broken treaty triggers a short, intense period of persecution for the Church—alogous to or patterned after the '10 days' of Smyrna (Rev. 2:10). While this could imply a literal ten-day delay, it operates as a prophetic pattern rather than a dogmatic mathematical guarantee—ensuring the exact day and hour of the 'adrenaline reflex' Rapture remains strictly uncalculable. Jesus may shorten the persecution per Matt. 24:22 for the elect's sake by this "approximately" 10-day period. I view the Rapture as a divine "adrenaline reflex." When a human body is punched, adrenaline flows. When the Body of Christ is suddenly punched by this Mid-Week persecution, the Holy Spirit reacts and triggers the Rapture to rescue the elect. Because God has concealed the exact duration of this "Smyrna delay" (between the breaking of the treaty and the actual Rapture reflex), the exact day and hour remain totally uncalculable. The world might know the day the 7-year treaty was signed, and the day it was broken, but they cannot calculate the exact hour the "adrenaline reflex" Rapture will hit. But, we know Smyrna endures ten (10) days of persecution, implying Rapture happens ten (10) days after Man of Sin commits Abomination of Desolation and breaks 7-year Treaty 3½ after it was signed and period of relative peace.

Editor's Note: After the abomination of desolation, which triggers intense persecution, the time period is thus estimated to be about ten (10) days before the shock on the system of the persecution triggers the Rapture—much like an adrenaline punch to the face. Phase 2: The Last 1,260 Days (God's Wrath)

In Rev.8:1–2, the Greek text structurally links the Seven Trumpets as the unfolding contents of the 7th Seal, rather than a subsequent sequence. John uses specific Koine syntax (an inclusio or "telescoping" structure) to embed the trumpets within the final seal.

The 7 Trumpets are grammatically embedded within the 7th Seal. The text does not permit a chronological break between Revelation 8:1 and 8:2. PROOF:

Exegetical Brief: The Telescopic Syntax of Revelation 8:1–2

The Greek Text (Nestle-Aland 28th Edition):

Rev.8:1: Καὶ ὅταν ἤνοιξεν τὴν σφραγίδα τὴν ἑβδόμην, ἐγένετο σιγὴ ἐν τῷ οὐρανῷ ὡς ἡμῶριον. Rev.8:2: καὶ εἶδον τοὺς ἑπτὰ ἀγγέλους οἱ ἐνώπιον τοῦ θεοῦ ἐστήκασιν, καὶ ἐδόθησαν αὐτοῖς ἑπτὰ σάλπιγγες.

To argue for a strictly linear, consecutive timeline (where the 7 Trumpets occur chronologically after the 7th Seal is completed) requires ignoring four specific syntactical and structural markers in the Koine Greek text.

1. The Syntactical Void (σ ι γῆ) acts as a Colon, not a Period

In Seals 1 through 6, the opening of the seal is immediately followed by a descriptive verb of judgment or physical action (e.g., went out, was given power, fell, was moved).

However, in Revelation 8:1, the temporal clause ὅταν ἤνοιξεν (when he opened) results in a grammatical void: ἐγένετο σιγή (there was silence). There is no verb of earthly judgment attached to the 7th Seal. Grammatically, this silence is a "pregnant pause" that creates an unresolved syntactical tension. The 7th Seal lacks its own substantive content; therefore, the text forces the reader to look to the next verse to find the actual contents of the seal.

2. The Paratactic Link (Καὶ εἶδον)

John heavily utilizes parataxis—the stringing together of clauses using the conjunction καὶ (And). Verse 2 begins with καὶ εἶδον ("And I saw"). In Johannine apocalyptic literature, καὶ εἶδον does not automatically denote a chronological step forward; it frequently denotes a shift in the visionary perspective within the same chronological space. Because Verse 1 provides no judgment content, the καὶ εἶδον of Verse 2 functions expegetically (providing an explanation or elaboration). The angels receiving the trumpets are the direct consequence and content of the seal being opened.

3. The Divine Passive of Provision (ἐδόθησαν αὐτοῖς)

Notice the verb regarding the trumpets: καὶ ἐδόθησαν αὐτοῖς (and were given to them). This is a classic "divine passive," indicating God is the unseen actor. The opening of the 7th Seal triggers a divine action in the throne room: the equipping of the trumpet angels. The action of the 7th Seal is not an event on earth; it is the distribution of the next series of judgments in heaven.

4. The Heptadic Apocalyptic Structure (The Inclusio)

For a reader steeped in Second Temple Judaism and Hebrew literary structures, the macro-syntax is obvious. Jewish apocalyptic literature frequently uses overlapping heptads (groups of seven). The 7th element of a sequence is almost never a standalone event; rather, it serves as the generative matrix—or inclusio—for the next sequence.

The 7th Seal does not have a "final" judgment because its explicit structural purpose is to birth the 7 Trumpets. Likewise, the 7th Trumpet (Rev.11:15) does not end the world; it opens the heavenly temple, which directly results in the 7 Bowls of Wrath (Rev.15).

The Exegetical Conclusion

If a reader demands a strictly linear (1 to 21) timeline, they must argue that the 7th Seal consists only of 30 minutes of silence, after which it completely closes, and then the Trumpets begin as a separate event. Below, I make the case that the 7th Seal is the container for the Trumpets. NOTE: This "Telescopic" model, as it is, serves as the foundation of my entire timeline's validity.

The Koine Greek does not support this. The paratactic chain, the lack of an independent judgment verb in verse 1, and the divine passive in verse 2 demand a telescopic reading: The opening of the 7th Seal is the mechanism that releases the 7 Trumpets. Therefore:

The Big Container: Draw a large box that stretches to the end of the timeline. Label this box: "The 7th Seal (Rev.8:1)."

The Inner Container: Inside that 7th Seal box, draw another box. Label it: "The 7 Trumpets (Rev.8:2)."

The Final Container: Inside the 7th Trumpet, draw the final box. Label it: "The 7 Bowls (Rev.15:1 - Wrath Completed)."

Why This Chronology is more plausible, biblical, than the more common "Naive Linear" Model:

If we physically draw it this way, we accomplish three massive forensic victories in hermeneutic exegesis of difficult passages:

1.) We solve the Daniel 9:27 Math Problem: By stacking the Trumpets inside the 7th Seal (because of the Greek inclusio syntax), we don't run out of days. We comfortably fit the massive scale of God's wrath into the final 1,260 days without absurd compression. [[TRANSLATION: If you spread out the 21 "catastrophic events" – 7 seals, 7 trumpets, & 7 bowls – into just the 7-year period, about half of them – about 10 or 11 – would obviously be in the first 3½-year period, which CAN NOT be because it's a period of "relative peace" – before the Man of Sin breaks his 7-year Treaty and commits the AOD (Abomination of Desolation). – got it? Get it. Good!]]

2.) We honor the "Finality" of the Text: We visually prove that the Bowls are the completion of the Trumpets, perfectly aligning with Revelation 15:1 ("wrath completed").

3.) We isolate the Church: Our chart visually separates the Church (experiencing the Seals) from God's direct wrath (the Trumpets/Bowls).

ADDENDUM: The 75-Day Prophetic Overtime (Daniel 12:11–12) While the Great Tribulation (the second half of Daniel's 70th week) is strictly limited to 1,260 days, Daniel 12 introduces two subsequent milestones: 1,290 days and 1,335 days. This creates a 75-day "administrative transition" period immediately following the physical return of Christ at Armageddon.

- Days 1,260 to 1,290 (The 30-Day Restoration Phase): Tied directly to the Abomination of Desolation (Dan 12:11), this period involves the physical and spiritual cleanup of the earth. The Antichrist and False Prophet are removed (Rev 19:20), Satan is bound (Rev 20:1-3), and the desecrated temple complex is cleansed.
- Days 1,290 to 1,335 (The 45-Day Transition Phase): This is the logistical runway for the Millennial Kingdom. Christ sets up His throne, gathers the surviving nations for the Sheep and Goat Judgment (Matt 25:31–46), removes the rebels, and assigns administrative authority to the glorified saints.
- Day 1,335 (Inauguration Day): Daniel 12:12 declares a blessing on those who reach this specific day. The 75-day transition is complete, and the 1,000-year reign of Christ officially commences.

MATTHEW 24:34-44 (Holy Bible, KJV)

34 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled.

35 Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

36 But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only.

37 But as the days of Noah were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

38 For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark,

39 And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

40 Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

42 Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.

43 But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up.

44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.

LUKE 17:32-36 (Holy Bible, KJV)

32 Remember Lot's wife.

33 Whosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it.

34 I tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

35 Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

36 Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

Question: Matthew 24:40-41 are parallel verses to Luke 17:34-36, which I've placed mid-week, above. However, here, they imply that maybe the Rapture, if that's what it is (is it?) is at the END of the 7-year Tribulation period. (Is it?? Dr. Hollowell and friends: Your help, please??) Editor's Note – possible ANSWER: Matthew 24:17-18 (24:17 Let him which is on the housetop not come down to take any thing out of his house: 24:18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.) show that 24:18, men in field, is identical to 24:36 in subject matter, meaning the later mention does not necessarily change the order but rather adds descriptions and reminders, thus no problem for timeline.

DANIEL – selected verses (Holy Bible, KJV)

9:24 Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy.

9:25 Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.

9:26 And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

9:27 And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.

10:14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days.

10:21 But I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that holdeth with me in these things, but Michael your prince.

11:1 Also I in the first year of Darius the Mede, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

11:2 And now will I shew thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Grecia.

12:1 And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book.

12:2 And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

12:6 And one said to the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?

12:7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and sware by him that liveth for ever that it shall be for a time, times, and an half; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished.

12:8 And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things?

12:9 And he said, Go thy way, Daniel: for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end.

12:10 Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand.

12:11 And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

12:12 Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days.

12:13 But go thou thy way till the end be: for thou shalt rest, and stand in thy lot at the end of the days.

Point of Comparison	Historic Premillennialism			Alternative Views			Strongest View(s)	Why (Exegetical Defense)
	The Church endures the Tribulation, Christ returns at the end, and establishes a literal 1,000-year earthly kingdom: Pre-Trib, Mid-Trib, and Post-Trib are the 3 main views in Historic Premillennialism.
	Pre-Trib  The Rapture occurs before the 7-year 70th Week of Daniel begins.	Mid-Trib  (Aka: “Pre-Wrath / Mid-Week”)  The Rapture occurs exactly (or almost exactly) mid-week (after the Abomination of Desolation), separating the Church from God's wrath.  Note: Several “mid-trib” variants exist, and this chart addresses all common variants, including mine, the one with the “Smyrna Gap.”	Post-Trib  The Rapture and the Second Coming are a single, simultaneous event at the very end of the 7 years.	Preterist  The prophecies of Matthew 24 and Revelation were entirely (or mostly) fulfilled in 70 A.D. with the destruction of the Temple.  Symbolic Transition: The "Rapture" language describes the Church's vindication or the transition into the New Covenant age.	Amillennial  There is no literal 7-year tribulation or literal 1,000-year reign. The "Millennium" is a spiritualized reality –a parallel kingdom – happening right now in the Church age.  The Final Resurrection: A single event occurring when Christ returns, the dead rise, and the living are transformed at the very end of time.	Postmillennialism  While Amillennialism believes we are in a spiritualized, parallel kingdom right now, Postmillennialism believes the world will get progressively better and more Christianized through the preaching of the Gospel, ushering in a golden age of peace (the Millennium), after which Christ will return.

These are typically explained as generic, un-timed cleanup intervals after a literal Second Coming,	Perfect Mathematical Fit. The 1,260 days mark the exact midpoint where the Antichrist breaks the covenant. The 70th Week of Daniel is specifically for "thy people" (Daniel's people/Israel), so the Church must be removed before God deals with Israel's final national refining process.	Shared Destiny. The Church is viewed as the "New Israel." There is no functional distinction in prophetic destination; the Church is expected to be present throughout the 70th Week to act as a witness, effectively enduring the same conditions as the literal Jewish remnant.	Historical / Fulfilled. Israel's role as the elect is fully realized/closed at 70 A.D. The "Church" is the continuation of the faithful remnant. All prophetic promises regarding "Israel" are viewed as already completed in the apostolic era.	Covenantal / Unified. The Church is the "New Israel." Prophetic promises to Israel are interpreted as fulfilled spiritually through the Church. There is no distinction between the two, which is why there is no literal 7-year "Tribulation" for Israel alone.	Successionist. The Church succeeds Israel in the covenant. The "Kingdom" is the Church's earthly mission – viewing the Church as the "New Israel" inheriting all promises through progressive dominion. Israel as a nation holds no special prophetic priority; therefore, no distinct "Rapture" of a separate Church entity is required.  Note: "Supersessionist" (a standard theological term for the view that the Church replaces Israel) is more precise.	(Tie) Pre-Trib and Mid-Week. Both strictly maintain the distinct prophetic destinies of Israel and the Church, ensuring the Church is removed before God's wrath is poured out on the world.	Based on the "Parenthesis" theory; the 70th week is "determined upon thy people" (Dan 9:24).

The Church is exempt from the latter by promise (1 Thess 5:9) and structural placement.	distinction between persecution and divine wrath. Arguments for "wrath" being avoided are dismissed as Western escapism; the position asserts the Church will face the "wrath of the dragon" (Satan) and the "wrath of God" simultaneously, being "kept" in it rather than from it.	Jerusalem in 70 A.D. 5. The Doctrine of Imminency: Preserving the "No man knows the day or hour" mandate (Matt 24:36) without ignoring the prophetic signs.	Totally imminent and unknown.	Can easily predict day of rapture if "traditional" mid-trib: Counting 3.5 years from signing of 7-year treaty. Exact day unknown in "Smyrna Gap" model (mine).	Can easily predict day of rapture if "traditional" mid-trib: Counting 7 years from signing of 7-year treaty.	Historical Fulfillment. Imminency is "solved" by claiming Jesus was referring to the imminent destruction of Jerusalem in 70 A.D. For the original disciples, His coming in judgment against the Temple was truly imminent, thus fulfilling the warning of "this generation" in Matthew 24:34.	Spiritualized Readiness. Rejects the need for physical "imminency" because they believe the Millennium is happening now. Imminency is redefined as a call to perpetual, spiritual readiness for Christ's final return at the end of the age, rather than an imminent "secret" rescue.	Gradualist Maturity. Imminency is secondary to the "Great Commission" mission. They argue Christ cannot return until the world is "ready" through successful Christianization. Therefore, the "day or hour" is unknown, but they believe the Church can discern "times and seasons" based on the progress of the Gospel's success globally.	"Smyrna Gap" variant of mid-trib (my model), edges out the pre-trib model. My argument regarding the "adrenaline reflex" is unique &amp; logically distinct. However, ensuring that the "10 days" in Rev. 2:10 is clearly defined as a pattern rather than a fixed 10-day calendar interval is crucial to avoid a "mathematical trap" that would contradict my imminency argument.	Can not predict exact day/hour. Based on "No man knows the day" (Matt 24:36) vs. "You see the day approaching" (Heb 10:25). Traditional mid-week models destroy imminency because anyone could count exactly 1,260 days from the treaty signing to predict the day of the escape. By utilizing a "Smyrna-Pattern Delay," this model introduces an uncalculable buffer of persecution right at the midpoint. This preserves the surprise element required for imminency

6. 1 Thess 5:3  “Peace &amp; Safety”  Explaining how the world can be at peace right before sudden destruction	Fails the logical consistency test. Placing the Rapture "Pre-Trib" forces a traumatic, chaotic disappearance of millions of people at the very beginning of the 7-year timeline. It is sociologically impossible for a global society to cry "peace and safety" immediately following a catastrophic mass vanishing.	Fits the narrative perfectly. If the Rapture occurs at or around the mid-point, the world can easily experience a false, highly structured period of geopolitical "peace and safety" during the first half of the 7 years under the Antichrist's initial treaty.	Can explain it, but forces the "peace and safety" period to exist somewhere during a time of global catastrophic plagues, which strains literal narrative flow.	Maps this to the temporary lull in conflict right before the Roman legions completely breached and destroyed Jerusalem in 70 A.D.	Views this as the general, repeating cycle of human complacency right before the final judgment at the end of the age.	Interprets this as a global state of true peace, though it struggles to account for the "sudden destruction" element.	(Tie) Mid-Trib (all variants) and Post-Trib.   Allows the world to experience a literal first-half period of "peace and safety," and ensures the Church is rescued safely before the Trumpets and Bowls of God's wrath fall.	1 Thess 5:3 context: A false security shattered by the sudden arrival of the Day of the Lord.   Mid-Trib (all variants) and Post-Trib models can explain a period of "peace and safety" quite easily. The Mid-Trib framework holds the logical edge because the Antichrist's first-half peace treaty provides a concrete, literal mechanism for global stability. The world can genuinely cry "Peace!" right up until the mid-week Abomination of Desolation triggers instant, sudden destruction.
7. "Abomination of Desolation"  Constrain (Matt 24:15 / Dan 9:27)  The political / spiritual trigger that breaks the treaty	Post-Rapture Milestone. The AOD is a literal event in a rebuilt Jewish temple, but it has no direct bearing on the Church. It occurs exactly 3.5 years after the Church has already been evacuated, serving only as a prophetic marker for Israel's persecution.	The Ultimate Catalyst. The AOD is the pivotal, literal event at the 3.5-year mark that shatters the "Peace &amp; Safety" illusion. It initiates the Antichrist's great tribulation against the saints, serving as the final chronological domino that must fall before the Rapture and subsequent Day of the Lord.	Endurance Marker. Agrees it is a literal event at the midpoint, but maintains the Church is present for it and simply endures the resulting persecution until the very end of the 7 years. It triggers no immediate rescue.	Historically Fulfilled (70 A.D.). Points to Luke 21:20 (Jerusalem surrounded by armies) as the parallel to Matthew 24:15. The AOD was strictly the Roman army of Titus desecrating the Temple and destroying Jerusalem in 70 A.D.	Spiritualized / Continuous. Often interprets the AOD not as a single, literal statue or act in a future temple, but spiritually as the spirit of antichrist, apostasy, or heresy infiltrating the Church throughout the current age.	Historical / Spiritual. Generally views the AOD as historically fulfilled, or allegorizes it as the ongoing defeat of Antichrist systems as the Gospel takes the dominion of the earth.	Pre-Trib but Mid-Week. It perfectly positions the AOD as the literal catalyst that shatters the false peace and triggers the "adrenaline reflex" Rapture.	Matt 24:15: The literal event in the Holy Place that initiates the "Great Tribulation."

8. "The Sign of the Son of Man" (Cosmic Disturbances / 6th Seal)	Bifurcated / Disconnected. Must argue that there are no signs preceding the Rapture to protect total imminency. Therefore, the cosmic signs of Matthew 24 and the 6th Seal are disconnected from the Church's rescue and applied strictly to the Second Coming at the very end of the 7 years.	The Definitive Precursor. Perfect harmonization of Matt 24 and Rev 6. The cosmic signs (sun darkened, moon to blood) are the immediate visual herald of the Rapture. It acts as the definitive celestial dividing line: ending the great tribulation (persecution) and initiating the Day of the Lord (wrath).	The Final Curtain. Agrees the sign is literal and visual, but places this celestial event at the absolute end of the 70th week, immediately before a single, unified return of Christ to earth to establish the Kingdom.	Historical Idiom. Completely localized to 70 A.D. The "sun, moon, and stars" falling represents the total collapse of the Jewish religious system, the destruction of the Temple, and the extinguishing of the national lights of Israel by the Roman army.	General Finality. Views the celestial unraveling as the general, symbolic imagery of the universe's final dissolution at the end of human history, not a specific chronological trigger within a 7-year sequence.	Symbolic Overthrow. Often interprets the collapsing sun, moon, and stars as standard prophetic idiom (borrowed from Isaiah's judgment on Babylon) for the overthrow of earthly governments and pagan systems as the Gospel advances	Pre-Trib but Mid-Week. It uniquely harmonizes Matthew 24 and Revelation 6, linking the 6th Seal's cosmic signs directly to the imminent rescue of the Church before the 7th Seal opens.	Matt 24:29-30: Celestial evidence that immediately precedes the Second Coming.
9. The Restrainer's Removal: Identifying what holds back the Antichrist and the timing of that removal (2 Thess 2:6-7).	The Holy Spirit within the Church. The Restrainer is the Holy Spirit indwelling the body of Christ. The only way the Restrainer can be "taken out of the way" is for the Church to be physically evacuated from the earth. Thus, the Rapture must occur before the Antichrist can even be revealed.	Michael the Archangel / Ministry Shift. Often links the Restrainer to Daniel 12:1 ("At that time Michael, the great prince who protects your people, will arise/step aside"). Alternatively, it is the Holy Spirit ceasing His restraining ministry, but not the physical removal of the Church. The Restraint is lifted, allowing the Antichrist to persecute the saints during the great tribulation.	Human Government / Ministry Shift. Views the Restrainer as human law/government (ordained by God to restrain evil) or a general lifting of the Spirit's restraint. The Church remains on earth to face the Antichrist; the removal of the Restrainer triggers the Tribulation, not a rescue.	Historical First-Century Figure. The Restrainer was a specific historical entity preventing Nero (the beast) from fully manifesting his evil—often identified as the Roman Emperor Claudius, Roman law in general, or the Jewish state prior to 70 A.D.	The Binding of Satan / The Gospel. The Restrainer is the current power of the Gospel and the Holy Spirit holding back the final, brief manifestation of evil until the very end of the Church age.	The Advance of the Kingdom. Similar to Amillennialism; the Restrainer is the active, victorious presence of Christianity in the world suppressing evil systems.	(Tie) Pre-Trib and Mid-Week. Both correctly identify the Restrainer as the Holy Spirit within the Church, requiring a physical evacuation of the Body of Christ. Pre-Trib holds the strongest grammatical argument for the Holy Spirit's bodily removal (requiring the Church to leave). However, Mid-Week offers a brilliant, airtight harmonization with Daniel 12:1 (Michael	2 Thess 2:6-7: That which "withholds" must be taken out of the way for the Anomos (Lawless One) to appear. stepping aside) that directly launches the time of unparalleled distress.

10. The Resurrection of the Saints (1 Cor 15 / Rev 20:4-6)	Multi-Phase. Distinguishes between the "First Resurrection" (the Church at the Rapture) and a later resurrection of Tribulation martyrs after the 7 years. Necessary to preserve the distinct status of the Church.	The Harvest Point. Views the resurrection of the saints as occurring at the "Last Trump" (the 7th Trumpet), which coincides with the Rapture. This is the singular event that triggers the "First Resurrection" mentioned in Rev 20:4-6.	Single General Resurrection. Asserts there is only one "First Resurrection" which occurs at the very end of the 7-year period, immediately when Christ returns to the earth.	Covenantal Transition. Views the "First Resurrection" as the spiritual transition from the Old Covenant to the New Covenant era in 70 A.D.; physical resurrection is reserved for the final end of human history.	Spiritualized / Ongoing. Rejects a literal future 1,000-year reign. The "First Resurrection" is identified as the regeneration of the believer at salvation; the "Second" is the physical resurrection at the final judgment.	Kingdom Continuation. Believes the "First Resurrection" is the triumph of the martyrs' influence throughout the Church age, leading to the final physical resurrection when Christ returns.  Single Final Event. The "First Resurrection" is the progressive life of the Church; the only literal physical resurrection is at the very end of history when Christ returns to a Christianized world.	Pre-Trib but Mid-Week (Smyrna Gap). It seamlessly times the "First Resurrection" as the midpoint harvest, ensuring the Church is glorified before the Trumpet judgments begin.  By linking the resurrection directly to the "Last Trump" (7th Trumpet), it perfectly anchors the harvest to a defined chronological marker in Revelation, whereas Pre-Trib relies on a more ambiguous, imminent, signless trumpet.	1 Cor 15:23 (Order: Christ first, then those who are His at His coming). Rev 20:4-6 (The "First Resurrection" as a judicial recognition of the saints).  1 Cor 15:23–24: Resurrection follows the "end" when Christ hands the Kingdom to the Father.

The 7th Seal simply introduces the 7 Trumpets.	Mid-Week (Smyrna Gap): Recognizes the parataxis (syntactical overlap). The 7th Seal is the 7 Trumpets. The first 3.5 years are the birth pangs (Seals 1-4), breaking into the severe Trumpet judgments at the midpoint.	Post-Trib: Recapitulation. The same set of judgments are viewed from different prophetic angles.	Full Fulfillment: Seals/Trumpets/Bowls describe the catastrophic collapse of the Jewish Temple and State; they are a linear record of the AD 66–70 war.	Cyclical/Recapitulation: Multiple visions (Seals, Trumpets, Bowls) describe the same conflict between Christ and the world from different perspectives throughout the Church Age.	Recapitulation: The Seals, Trumpets, and Bowls are not sequential or telescopic; they are parallel descriptions of the same historical events seen from different angles	Strongest View: Mid-Week.	It respects the literary structure of Revelation, preventing the chronological bloat of stretching out events that are clearly designed to overlap rapidly.

Transition: How each model maps Daniel's 1,290 and 1,335-day markers. (Currently, this is only briefly mentioned in Row 1; it deserves its own dedicated row.)	Daniel's 1,290 and 1,335 days as an administrative setup period for the Millennial Kingdom occurring after Christ's physical return to earth.	days strictly to the end of the 70th Week. The extra 30 days (1,290) account for the cleansing of the temple post-Armageddon, and the 45 days (1,335) mark the exact start of the Millennial reign.	7th Trumpet (Return) and the final establishment of the Messianic kingdom.	period between the destruction of the Temple and the complete Roman conquest of Judea (e.g., the fall of Masada).	symbolic of the present Church Age, there is no historical "buffer" between the Tribulation and the Kingdom.	progressive, historical reality established by the growth of the Church rather than a fixed post-Tribulation window. Since the "1,260 days" and subsequent markers are historical symbols for the current Church Age, there is no literal 75-day transition period.	pre-trib, mid-week, and post-trib models.	tribulational buffer, and all correctly place this unique 75-day window at the absolute end of the timeline, bridging the Tribulation to the Millennium.
16. The Ministry of the Two Witnesses (Rev 11): Placing their 1,260-day ministry in the first half vs. the second half.	Pre-Trib: Typically places their 1,260-day ministry in the first half of the tribulation, ending with their death and resurrection near the midpoint.	Mid-Week (Smyrna Gap): Places their 1,260-day ministry in the second half. They prophesy against the Antichrist during his absolute reign of terror, mirroring Moses vs. Pharaoh.	Post-Trib: Entire 7-year period (or the final 3.5 years).	The Apostles: Represents the early Church/Apostles whose testimony was rejected by Jerusalem before its destruction.	The Church's Testimony: Symbolizes the constant, faithful witness of the Church against the world throughout history.	Corporate Witness: The Two Witnesses represent the collective faithful testimony of the Church throughout history, not two individual future prophets.	Strongest View: Mid-Week.	Placing them in the second half brilliantly provides the localized prophetic resistance in Jerusalem precisely when the Antichrist is physically occupying the temple.
17. The Sealing of the 144,000 (Rev 7): Determining when the physical remnant of Israel is sealed for protection.	Pre-Trib: Sealed at the very beginning of the 7 years to act as Jewish evangelists replacing the evacuated Church.	Mid-Week (Smyrna Gap): Sealed right before the midpoint / 7th Seal. They are the physical remnant protected on earth while the Church (the Great Multitude) is relocated to Heaven.	Post-Trib: Sealed throughout the tribulation for divine protection.	The Saved Remnant: The Jewish Christians who were protected / fled to Pella before the destruction of Jerusalem.	The Church Triumphant: Symbolizes the complete, divinely protected number of all the elect throughout the Church Age.	Symbolic Remnant: Represents the totality of the redeemed—the full count of the Church—protected by God as they survive the historical trials of the world.	Strongest View: Mid-Week.	The sequence of Revelation 7 directly juxtaposes the 144,000 (protected on earth) with the Great Multitude (arriving in Heaven), perfectly timing the mid-week rapture and sealing.
18. The Woman Fleeing to the Wilderness (Rev 12): Tracking Israel's 1,260 days of divine protection from the	Pre-Trib: The woman (Israel) flees at the midpoint when the Abomination of Desolation occurs, protected for 1,260 days.	Mid-Week (Smyrna Gap): Identical view. The flight of Israel to the wilderness (often associated with Petra/Bozrah) spans the exact second half	Post-Trib: Flees at the midpoint.	The Jerusalem Church: Represents the community of believers who fled Jerusalem to the wilderness (Pella) as instructed by Jesus in	The Church's Survival: Symbolizes the Church's preservation by God as she is nourished through spiritual trials until Christ returns.	Historical/Symbolic: The flight of the woman into the wilderness represents the Church's preservation	Strongest View: (3-way Tie) The pre-trib, mid-week, and post trib.	All 3 models handle the typology of the Woman and the Dragon exactly the same, adhering to the literal 3.5-year survival of the Jewish

Dragon.		of the week.		the Olivet Discourse.		throughout the era of human history (the "1,260 days" of witness).		remnant.
19. The Martyrs Under the Altar vs. The Great Multitude (Rev 6 vs. Rev 7): Reconciling the timeline of the Tribulation saints waiting for their brethren.	Pre-Trib: The 5th Seal martyrs are early Tribulation converts. The Great Multitude (Rev 7) are massive numbers of Gentiles saved and martyred throughout the 7 years.	Mid-Week (Smyrna Gap): The 5th Seal martyrs are crying out for justice during the first 3.5 years of false peace/localized persecution. The Great Multitude is the raptured Church arriving in glory immediately after.	Post-Trib: All are victims of the Antichrist's persecution.	Early Saints: Martyrs are the Christians killed under Nero/Jewish persecution; the Multitude is the expanded body of Christ post-AD 70.	Cumulative Saints: Martyrs are all believers slain throughout history; the Multitude is the total assembly of the redeemed before God's throne.	Historical Endurance: Martyrs are those who died faithfully across the centuries; the Multitude is the cumulative total of all saints redeemed during the long Church Age.	Strongest View: Mid-Week.	It provides a highly satisfying resolution to the 5th Seal martyrs' cry—they are told to wait just a little longer until the full number (the Rapture) is brought in, immediately visualized by the Great Multitude.
20. The Identity and Rise of the Beast (Rev 13): Tracking the political and economic dominion (Mark of the Beast) in relation to the Church's presence.	Pre-Trib: The Antichrist / Beast "rises from the sea" (is revealed) politically early on, by signing the 7-year treaty, but is only granted his 42 months of supreme global authority / dominion & economic control (Mark of the Beast) at the midpoint.	Mid-Week (Smyrna Gap): Same.	Post-Trib: Same.	Roman Empire/Nero: The Beast is a historical entity, specifically the Roman Emperors (Nero/Vespasian) who orchestrated the destruction of the Temple.	The Antichrist System: Represents any worldly system, culture, or state that demands worship instead of God throughout the history of the world.	Historical/Institutional: The Beast represents any secular power or Antichrist system that opposes the Church throughout history; the "Mark" is a symbolic allegiance to secularism over Christ.	Strongest View: (3-way Tie) Pre-trib, mid-week, and post-trib.	All 3 models accurately distinguish between the Antichrist's initial deceptive political rise and his literal 42-month demonic dominion: The "Midpoint Pivot" is the most widely accepted anchor for the Antichrist's character shift.
21. The Fall of Babylon (Rev 17-18): Identifying the destruction of the global religious/economic system.	Pre-Trib: Mystery Babylon (the one-world religion) dominates the first half. Commercial Babylon is destroyed by God at the very end of the 7 years.	Mid-Week (Smyrna Gap): The Antichrist turns on and destroys the Harlot (religious Babylon) at the midpoint to demand exclusive worship. The economic system falls at the end.	Post-Trib: Both religious Babylon (Harlot) and commercial Babylon (economic system) destroyed near the end as the Antichrist's system collapses.	Jerusalem/Rome: Babylon is the "Great City" (Jerusalem) that committed spiritual adultery or Rome as the persecutor of the Church.	Worldly Influence: Babylon is the symbol of the global system of man-centered corruption that competes with the City of God (the Church).	Historical Collapse: Babylon is the global system of godless humanism. Its fall is the gradual but inevitable historical collapse of Antichrist power structures through the influence of the Gospel.	Strongest View: Pre-Trib but Mid-Week.	The Mid-Week emphasis makes the destruction of the Harlot the primary catalyst for the Antichrist declaring himself God at the 3.5-year mark.

22. The Marriage Supper of the Lamb (Rev 19): Timing the celebration of the Church in Heaven relative to the chaos on Earth.	Pre-Trib: The Church enjoys a full 7-year celebration in Heaven while the earth burns, before returning with Christ.	Mid-Week (Smyrna Gap): The Church experiences the Bema Seat judgment and the Marriage Supper during the final 3.5 years of the Great Tribulation, before riding out on white horses at Armageddon.	Post-Trib: Celebrated immediately upon the Lord's return.	New Covenant: The formal establishment of the Church as the Bride of Christ following the end of the Old Covenant system in AD 70.	The Second Coming: The final, glorious gathering of the Church to Christ at the physical end of human history.	Historical Consummation: The culmination of the Church's historical witness, occurring at the end of the Millennial era when Christ returns and the Kingdom is finally handed over to the Father to receive a world finally won to the Gospel.	Strongest View: Mid-Week: It allows for the Bema seat and the Marriage Supper to occur before the descent with the armies of heaven.	It tightens the timeline, ensuring the bride is prepared and celebrated just in time to ride out with the King, avoiding a drawn-out 7-year gap between the rapture and the return.
